GRAND JURY PROBING FRAUDS

Evidence of Election Irregularities Laid Before Body
District Attorney Declines to Discuss New Data

Election rosters were minutely gone over, several election officers were put through a searching examination in regard to alleged careless methods in vote supervision and ballot counting and several new developments were brought out this morning in the examination being conducted by the grand jury into the recent election frauds uncovered in the suit brought by County Clerk John P. Cook for a recount of ballots cast in the recent primaries. District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes conducted the investigation, several election officers in precincts where irregularities were found being questioned.

A mass of evidence was presented this morning when District Attorney Hynes laid his facts before the inquisitorial body. Several new precincts were declared to have been found involved in the wholesale fraud, which, it is declared, favored Progressive candidates in the election.

PROSECUTOR IS SILENT.

District Attorney Hynes this morning was reticent regarding his new discoveries, declaring that until they had been laid before the jury he did not care to make them public lest more election officers and others involved take alarm and leave the city. Several already have done so, it is declared, this hampering considerably the work of the inquisitors in probing the alleged frauds to the bottom. Election officers of a score of precincts will be examined before the investigation is concluded.

Asked whether any indictments could be expected after today's investigation, the district attorney declared that the matter was problematical and that probably no such developments could be expected until the completion of the inquiry.

Count of twelve precincts, in the recount of primary election ballots being held in Superior Judge Volk's court today resulted in a gain of 37 votes for County Clerk John P. Cook and 7 votes for his opponent, George Gross. This makes a net gain for Cook of 313 votes since the recount started. There are thirty more precincts to be counted. The count will probably be completed Wednesday.

Fibush Indicted for Theft of Documents

Indictment was returned by the grand jury this morning in the Superior Court against Martin Fibush, an electrician, accused of removing letters and papers from the county clerk's office in a divorce action of Charles G. against Louise E. Fries. The alleged offense was committed on September 24.

Fibush was mentioned in the suit and is accused in the indictment of having removed two letters which were introduced in evidence. This constitutes an offense under the Political Code, which prescribes punishment for tampering with or removing public documents. Fibush was remanded to the custody of the sheriff and released on bonds.

Following the filing of the divorce suit Fries filed suit against Fibush for $25,000, alleging alienation of his wife's affections. At this time, it is charged, Fibush removed the letters, evidently with a view to eliminating evidence. Investigation resulted in charges being made before the district attorney, which were placed before the grand jury today.

WILSON TO MAKE HIS PEACE WITH TWO COLONELS?

WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—That President Wilson is about to make peace with Henry Watterson, editor of the Louisville Courier Journal, as well as with George Harver, editor of the North American Review, whom he saw at the White House yesterday, was suggested today when President Wilson told callers he hoped to see Watterson at the executive mansion. He added that no arrangements for such a meeting had been made.

TURK CITIES RAZED BY TREMBLOR

Loss of Life Is Heavy in Smyrna Earthquake

SMYRNA, Asiatic Turkey, Sunday, Oct. 4, via London, Oct. 5.—The towns of Isbarta (population of about 25,000) and Burdur (population about 12,000), in the province of Konia, were severely damaged by an earthquake last night at midnight. The loss of life was very heavy. These two towns are centers of the carpet industry.

A dispatch from Fort de France, Island of Martinique, received in New York last Sunday, said that shortly after 1 o'clock that day a severe earthquake shock was felt at Fort de France. The direction was from north to south. No damage was done locally.

The same shock was recorded also through the Windward and Leeward Islands.

Not Barbarians, Says Relative of Kaiser

PARIS, Oct. 5.—Duke Ernst Gunther of Schleswig-Holstein, brother-in-law of the German emperor, with other Germans, recently visited Marseilles, a French town eight miles southeast of Compiegne, where Clement Bavaud, a Paris manufacturer, has a home. Entering M. Bavaud's house, the duke left for the manufacturer an autograph note reading:

"I restore your home with its beautiful objects of art in the same state as I found them, without breaking or damaging, as the servants can testify. You see that the Germans are not barbarians, as has been charged."

A chateau in the same town, however, according to the Matin, was burned by German troops.

M. Bavaud, during a visit to Germany shortly before the war was arrested on a charge of espionage. This called out a protest from the French government.

Says War Revived Religion in France

LONDON, Oct. 5.—"One result of the war has been a distinct religious revival in France," says the Paris correspondent of the Times. His dispatch continues:

"The so-called 'clerical peril' has disappeared from popular imagination. Everywhere priests have been distinguished for their heroism and patriotic devotion. Several have died on the field of battle and others are showing great devotion as chaplains and in attending the wounded."

FORTS FALL IN BERLIN REPORT

Attack on City Is Imminent, Kaiser's Report Hints
But English Deny That Redoubts of Antwerp Are Shaken

By Associated Press.
ANTWERP, Belgium, Oct. 5, via London, 4:03 p. m.—According to official announcement made here today the situation of the fortified positions around Antwerp remains today without change.

WHAT GERMANY SAYS.
BERLIN, Oct. 5, by wireless to Sayville, N. Y.—An official report from the German army headquarters says that in the siege of Antwerp the forts of Lierre, Waelhem and Koningshoek and the intermediate redoubts, with thirty guns, have been taken.

"Thus a breach has been made in the outer circle of forts," the report adds, "rendering an attack on the inner circle of forts and the town itself possible."

"Near Angustowo the Third Siberian and parts of the Twenty-second Russian army corps, composing the left wing of the Russian army, on crossing the Niemen river, were defeated after a furious battle lasting two days. More than 2000 wounded Russians were made prisoners and a large quantity of guns and machine guns were captured."

PORTUGAL MAY ENTER.
Other press matter given out in official quarters says:

"The force of native troops from British India, which recently landed at Marseilles, has left that port for the northward."

"British ships have arrived at Lisbon and are probably destined to transport Portuguese troops. Portugal's co-operation in the war is imminent."

Servians Approach Capital of Bosnia

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5, 2:20 a. m.—A Hares Agency dispatch from Nish brings the following official statement from the Servian War Office:

"Servian troops in Bosnia have approached the forts of Sarajevo (the capital). The Austrians, who occupy the heights on the right bank of the Drina, are suffering from a lack of provisions."

"On October 2, near Klenak, on the River Save, the Austrians attacked their own troops."

French Railways May Win Battle of Aisne

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5, 4:31 a. m.—The correspondent of the Times at Bordeaux, commenting on the battle in Northern France says:

"The time has not yet come to reveal the composition of the allies' left which is now striking up toward the Belgian frontier, but when the veil hiding the movement in the neighborhood of Amiens is drawn away it will be seen what a potent factor the French Railway service has been in the battles of Northern France."

German Mine Sends Dutch Ship to Doom

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5.—A Reuter dispatch from Amsterdam says that the Dutch steamer Nieuwland, while on a voyage from Coole, England, to Rotterdam, struck a mine in the North Sea and sank. Her crew of 17 men were saved by a trawler and landed at Vlissingen, Holland.

Available shipping records do not contain the steamer Nieuwland.

PARALYZED BY FUMES OF EXPLODED SHELL, DIE IN BUILDING

LONDON, Oct. 5.—Telegraphing from Paris, the correspondent of Reuter's Telegram Company says:

"That the fumes of the famous French 3-inch shell have a most deadly effect in an enclosed space is shown by a scene that met the eyes of the French penetrating a chateau occupied by the Germans and which they had just bombarded. Entering the drawing room they found a company of Wurtembergians petrified in action."

"Some were at the windows taking aim with their fingers still pressing the trigger, while others were at the tables where they had been playing games with cards in their hands, while still others had cigarettes in their lips. An officer stood with his mouth as if in the act of dictating an order, and all the corpses looked absolutely life-like."

CZAR LEADS HIS ARMIES TO BATTLE

Nicholas Arrives at the Front to March Into Germany

BULLETIN.
PETROGRAD, Oct. 5.—Emperor Nicholas, commander-in-chief of the Russian armies, has arrived at the headquarters of the active army. This information was given out today from general headquarters.

By Associated Press.
PETROGRAD, via London, Oct. 5.—Emperor Nicholas has arrived at army headquarters at the front, according to a dispatch received here today.

General Soukhomlinoff, the minister of war, the court minister and the palace commandant accompanied the emperor.

Empress Alexandra and the daughters of the monarch bade him farewell.

WAR SUMMARY

By Associated Press.
The allies have been obliged to give ground at certain points on the western side of the battle line. This was announced in a statement issued by the French war office this afternoon.

The announcement contained only the additional information that the battle continues with great violence to the north of the Oise without decisive result, and that there is no change on the remainder of the front.

A wireless dispatch today from Berlin to Sayville, L. I., brings a long German official statement in which there is no reference whatever to the great engagement in which the allies are attempting to turn the German right wing in Northern France and reach the German line of communication to Belgium.

The German war office declares that in the siege of Antwerp, forts Lierre, Waelhem and Koningshoek have been taken, opening the way for an attack on the inner circle of fortifications and the city proper.

There has been nothing official from Petrograd, but the most recent reports, official and unofficial, from the Russian capital set forth that the German and Austrian forces all along the fighting area from the Baltic to Hungary were being checked, driven back or routed.

KAISER IS HURLED BACK

Cannonading Continues in Vicinity of Tsing-Tau
48 Germans Are Reported Killed Among the Casualties

By Associated Press.
TOKIO, Oct. 5.—It is officially announced that German infantry at Tsing-tau delivered a surprise night attack against the Japanese, but were repulsed. The Germans had 48 killed and the Japanese 5 killed and 8 wounded.

The cannonading on land and sea in the vicinity of Tsing-Tau continues. Four Japanese shells hit the German boat lifts, which retired into the inner harbor after the exchange of shots.

OFFER NO OPPOSITION.

By Associated Press.
PEKIN, Oct. 5.—Although the Chinese authorities continue to hope that the Japanese will permit them a measure of control over the Shan-Tung Railroad, they have informed the Japanese that they will not oppose the military occupation of the line. This is the railroad which runs from Tsing-Tau westward through the province of Shan-Tung, to Chih-Nan, passing through Wei-Hsien.

The Japanese are confident that the Chinese troops will obey the instructions of President Yuan Shi Kai to this effect, consequently are sending less than 500 men westward beyond Wei-Hsien.

The Japanese are using the line in connection with their operations against the German territory of Kiaochow.

Austrian Emperor Barred From Hospitals

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 5, 5:20 a. m.—A report received here from Vienna says that Emperor Francis Joseph has yielded to the advice of his physicians to abstain from visiting the hospitals where wounded soldiers are being treated. Archduke Eugene will now take up this task for the emperor.

FRANCE ADMITS DEFEAT; KAISER FLEES IN RUSSIA

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 5, 3:02 p. m.—The following official communication was given out in Paris this afternoon:

"On our left wing to the north of the Oise the battle continues with great violence. The results remain indecisive. We have been compelled at certain points to yield ground. Along the remainder of the front there has been no change."

"In Russia, after a battle which lasted ten days, the German army, which was operating between the eastern Prussian front and the Niemen river, has been driven back along the entire line and made its retreat, abandoning a considerable quantity of war material."

"This army has evacuated completely the territory of the Russian provinces of Suwalki and Lonja."

DECISIVE DEVELOPMENTS IMMINENT.

By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 5, 5:20 a. m.—When the long drawn-out battle in the north was resumed today there was a feeling in many quarters that decisive developments were imminent. Consequently, this afternoon's statement of the war office on the battle line of the Aisne, unique in the history of battles, was awaited with the greatest interest.

While the French realize that the battle has not yet been won, it does not seem to many of them that it can now be lost. If the allies win, no doubt is felt that they will pay for it, the sacrifice on both sides already being great.

HOPE ON PART OF FRENCH.

The tone of the official communications have furnished the best reasons for hope on the part of the French, although announcement of the visit of President Poincare to the front was an additional factor for the confidence and optimism felt in regard to the intense struggle. His action is generally commented on as indicating that success is at hand.

Despite the hope of the French, the military critic, Lieutenant-Colonel Rousset, declares the battle still can last for some time, pointing out that modern encounters last now as long as certain conditions formerly did. In 1859 the situation was settled in two months, while in 1870 it took thirteen weeks, the fighting after Sedan and Metz being merely a contest for honor.

"RESULT" CANNOT BE CLAIMED.

In the furious fighting now going on, Lieutenant-Colonel Rousset says, neither adversary can claim what Napoleon called "the result."

With the shifting of the battle scenes, the results are resuming traffic through a number of cities which have been occupied by the Germans. From Eprenay news comes that the Germans respected the vines of Eprenay, in the important champagne district. Colonel Du Paty de Clam, a celebrity of the Dreyfus case, is among the wounded in Paris.

REPUBLICAN LEAD, 2200

The Republican registration in Alameda county, according to the total figures for the coming election, as completely compiled at 2 o'clock this afternoon, leads the Progressive, its nearest rival, by 2200 votes.

The total county registration for the election on November 3, to date, is 126,029. The Republican registration is 51,312. The other parties show the following: Progressive, 49,912; Democratic, 12,940; Prohibition, 6021; Socialist, 6021; non-partisan, 5696. Saturday night closed the registration for the coming election.

TWELVE DEAD; MANY INJURED IN ALABAMA MINE EXPLOSION

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 5.—Twelve men are known to be dead and twelve injured as a result of an explosion today in the Mulga mines of the Woodward Iron Company, eighteen miles northwest of Birmingham.

COSSACKS SPREAD TERROR ON PLAINS OF HUNGARY

GATES OF CARPATHIANS ARE HELD BY RUSSIANS

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 5, 10:10 a. m.—A dispatch to the Star from Rome, speaking of the Russian invasion of Hungary, says: "Having captured all the Carpathian passes, the Russians have commenced the invasion of Hungary, advancing to the south, and they have occupied Hosszuzemezo. Then the Cossacks effected a daring coup. They crossed the river and cut the railway at Cziget, thus isolating the remainder of Hungary."

RUSSIAN PLAN COERCIVE.

By Associated Press.

ROME, via Paris, Oct. 5, 7:18 a. m.—News from Russian headquarters says the invasion of Hungary through the Carpathians has two objects.

The first is to insure the left flank of the Russian army operating against Przemyśl and along the San river and, second, to open a new field of action in the vast Hungarian plains where it can frighten the population, disturb the drilling of Hungarian reservists and recruits and cut the railway communications, besides freely feeding an important portion of the army from the resources of the country.

It is recalled that during the Russian-Turkish war of 1877 an expedition commanded by General Jourko, and mostly composed of cavalry, did the same thing, crossing the Balkan mountains and entering eastern Roumania.

minent, the mobilization of the Portuguese forces, it is believed, having been expected on the demand of the Russian government.

"The Roumanian Crown Prince has been strongly rebuffed for his Russophile agitation. The leaders of the Roumanian parties have declared themselves in favor of continuing the neutral policy of the Roumanian government."

"A manifesto issued by the Roumanian social party assumes that the neutrality of the country will be preserved, condemns the Russophile propaganda, and emphasizes the dangerous position of Roumania."

"The government of The Netherlands has strengthened the Dutch force along the frontier districts to deter any possible invasion."

"According to a statement made by his eminence, Cardinal Beffert, the highest Roman Catholic authority in Belgium, the statements appearing in the English and American newspapers that priests have been shot and bayoneted by German soldiers while attending the wounded in Belgium, are to be considered as absolutely without foundation."

"It is also declared that the English newspaper correspondents overlook the fact that a large portion of the German army is Roman Catholic."

PROFESSORS PROTEST.
"A manifesto signed by Hermann, Behring, Hauptmann, Klinger, Sudermann, Roentgen, Frick, Dellmann, and other prominent writers and artists, indignantly protest against what is termed unceasing lies about the pretended barbarous warfare of the Germans."

"The leader of the American government commission sent to Germany on board the cruiser Tennessee to prepare for the return of American soldiers, has addressed a letter to President Von Mendenhall and the German relief highly praising the German nation in arms and thanking them for innumerable proofs of friendship."

"Russia is issuing $375,000,000 unsecured bonds to finance the war."

"The return of the German Imperial Bank last week shows $429,000,000 in specie, which is $10,250,000 more than in the previous return."

Turkey Carries Out Abrogation Program

By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—Notwithstanding the protest of the powers, including the United States, the Turkish government is carrying out its program for the abrogation of the capitulations, already has proceeded to put into effect the new and increased customs rates proposed to replace the low arbitrary rates fixed in the capitulations. As an indication of good feeling in Turkey toward Americans, Ambassador Morgenthau advised the State Department today that on October 1 the day the abrogation of the capitulations went into effect, he and the minister of war went to Robert College, an American institution and there named for the admission of a special class composed of the minister's brother and his two sons.

Jewish Societies to Plan Aid Measures

By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The American Jewish committees, in a statement issued today, stated that a preparatory conference to meet here would soon be called of representatives of important Jewish organizations throughout the country to consider relief measures for the Jews who are in distress in Europe.

The statement says that while it is premature to consider what relief measures should be adopted, information is being gathered in Europe of the extent of the distress among the Jews, and urges that organizations throughout the country should hold themselves in readiness to co-operate in the work to be mapped out at the conference here.

Crocker's Brother-in-Law Is Now Major

By Associated Press.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Prince Andre Potiatowski, brother-in-law of Wm. H. Crocker, and well known in social and sporting circles of San Francisco, has been revealed in a new role as a picture post card recently sent by him from Paris to Mrs. W. H. Crocker in London.

The prince, with his two sons, Stanislaus and Casimir, is serving the armies of France against Germany, and all have served with distinction.

The photograph on the post card, received in San Francisco from Mrs. Crocker in London, shows Prince Potiatowski in the uniform of a French major, in command of a company of French prisoners of war to Limoges. The written message of the prince to his sister-in-law on the card, mailed in Paris, is as follows:

"You may see me, on this card, conveying 24 prisoners to the Limoges camp (all) a queer job. I hope H. and C. are quite all right again. Things are now well in hand. We will have a tremendous win yet, but the victory is in sight, as our men are all doing good work."

"Affectionately yours," "ANDRE."

AMERICANS SLOW TO LEAVE
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5, 2:57 p. m.—Julius Lay, the American consul-general at Berlin, has advised the United States Embassy at London that he finds difficulty in persuading Americans that it is advisable to leave Germany, as they prefer to remain. About 10 Americans on an average arrive daily now through the American Relief Committee to leave Berlin. The London committee received only 20 applicants for assistance. Most of these are from Germany.

EMPEROR VIEWS BATTLE HAS SPECIAL BODYGUARD

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—The Daily Call, a new London paper issued today, prints a dispatch from its Amsterdam correspondent which says that the German emperor has promised to confer a special decoration, second class of the order of the Red Eagle, on the first German aviator to drop explosives on London.

Describing the daily life of the emperor at the front, the correspondent says that, when staying in France, the emperor caused the chateau in which he lived to be fortified against aerial attacks by sacks of sand piled on the roof and by a protective shield of metal work.

When the emperor moves his headquarters a small army of military engineers precedes him to carry out such defensive measures as are necessary.

Around the French chateau were a special bodyguard, a detachment outside the emperor's bedroom, another in the hall, another at the front door and two more in the rooms above and beneath the sleeping room. Three unbroken lines of sentries surrounded the house and a whole battalion of infantry and several squadrons of cavalry were encamped in the adjoining park.

This chateau, according to the correspondent, was twenty miles from the front and linked by a telegraph line with the headquarters of the nearest army, so that the emperor would not be endangered by a sudden retreat. When the emperor left the chateau he greeted the men with: "Good morning, soldiers!" He then was whirled away in a motor car to the front, the imperial standard following in a second car. At the front the emperor's ceremony still was shown. A standard bearer rode behind the emperor. Then followed a spectacular progress along the front from point to point.

During the morning the emperor delivered nine speeches to different troops. Lunch was partaken of in the open air before the commanding general's tent, the wine and food being taken from the house of a French country gentleman and served by dunkers in gorgeous uniforms.

There were many more visits to the troops and speeches in the afternoon; then back to the chateau for dinner. At no time of the day had the emperor been near enough to be under fire.

Hungarian Ports Are Guarded From Attack
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5.—Fearing an attack by the English and French fleets in the Adriatic, the naval authorities at Fiume have ordered all Hungarian ports closed from an hour before sunset until an hour after sunrise.

At Bucharest, where the emperor has just arrived, the emperor has prohibited the exportation of flour but is still permitting grain to be exported. In normal times the high Austrian import duties prevent any considerable quantity of Rumanian flour from reaching the market, but now, in view of the rapid rise of prices on the Vienna grain market, grain, it is said, would be welcome in Austria and Hungary.

The Austrian minister of commerce reports that the production of coal during the month of August dropped 30 per cent. in Germany, it is said, the coal production decreased by half.

Many Lives Lost in Sinking of Ships
LONDON, Oct. 5.—Exclusive of officers, 1433 lives were lost in the sinking of the British cruisers Aboukir, Cressy and Hogue in the North Sea, September 22, according to a report issued by the admiralty last night. The Aboukir lost 510 men; the Cressy 561, and the Hogue 352.

AUSTRIAN HOSPITALS CROWDED WITH SICK
By Associated Press.
VIENNA, via Paris, Oct. 5.—The Vienna hospitals are crowded with sick and wounded soldiers are fearfully crowded. The city council has decided to build additional wooden barracks hospitals which will be furnished with 10,000 beds.

A great block of buildings comprising the University of Vienna has been given over entirely to wounded soldiers. The students now meet in improvised lecture rooms in various public buildings.

The army of destitute and unemployed people in the Austrian capital is increasing daily. Thousands are threatened with starvation. The authorities estimate that it will be necessary to provide free meals for 100,000 persons daily and measures are being taken to carry this out.

Owing to the rapid advance in the price of meat and the shortage of livestock, the city council has asked the government to permit the importation of 1000 tons of Argentine beef.

AROUSES SOCIALISTS OF ITALY TO TAKE TRENT
MILAN, Oct. 4, via Paris Oct. 5.—A great meeting was held here tonight and before a large and enthusiastic crowd Signor Battisti, socialist deputy from Trent, Austria, made a speech in which he said he was much touched by the imposing demonstration of the people of Trent, that it was a liberation by its Italian brothers.

"The liberation of Trent and Trieste," he said, "means the accomplishment of a duty left as a heritage by the great makers of the Fatherland."

The enthusiastic crowd following the speech paraded the streets and at times efforts of the police and carabinieri to restrain the people were in vain. A demonstration of sympathy and then marched to the monument of Garibaldi, where other speakers delivered fiery speeches.

WAR CAUSED BY LACK OF HEEFULESS; FARLEY
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—Cardinal Farley, making his first public utterance since his return from his five month's sojourn in Europe, laid the blame for the European war on the heedlessness of the warring nations to listen to the good counsel of the church. He mentioned only one country—France—in this connection, which, he said, "suffocated every breath of freedom out of the church."

The aged Catholic prelate made his address in St. Patrick's cathedral at high mass. At the conclusion of his address he offered a prayer for the discontinuance of the "source of war" and begged for a continuance of peace in this country.

AID BELGIAN FUND.
SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—The Belgian War Relief Fund Committee, under the auspices of the Consul for Belgium in this city, announces that it has received up to October 3 the sum of $7500. Contributions were sent to the Belgian Consulate and to the headquarters of the executive committee, 625 Montgomery street.

Pure Rich Blood Prevents Disease
Bad blood—that is, blood that is impure or impoverished, thin and pale—is responsible for more ailments than anything else. It affects every organ and function. In some cases it causes catarrh; in others, dyspepsia; in others, rheumatism; and in still others, weak, dried, languid feelings and worse troubles.

It is responsible for run-down conditions, and is the most common cause of disease.

German Advance May Be Tactical Error
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the Times says: "The Germans may soon have cause to regret the success of the movement which carried them to St. Mihiel and the banks of the Meuse. While their engineers are making unrelenting efforts to bridge the river again, the French are working step by step toward their rear."

"The balance of days and nights of exhaustion in fighting, the loss of cashing bayonet charges, gallant cavalry actions and obstinate bombardments is about to be struck. The French await the end of the three weeks' struggle with confidence, while casting an eye upon Antwerp."

PENSIONS FOR DISABLED; LABOR LEADER'S PLEA
LONDON, Oct. 5.—Every man permanently disabled in the war is unable to follow his former occupation ought to be paid $5 a week during his life, is the opinion of George Nicol Barnes, the labor leader, and a member of Parliament for the Birmingham Division of Warwickshire.

Mr. Barnes advocated this plan at a mass meeting last night. Heretofore, he said, the disabled had been allowed to beg in the street. Now, however, the government was giving serious consideration to the subject of these unfortunate, and a like situation would not again exist. He estimated that the sum which the government would be called upon to pay the dependents of bread-winners in the field would not reach $25,000,000. Accordingly, he added, the government had not erred on the side of generosity.

GERMAN CONTRABAND TRADE.
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 5, 7:16 a. m.—The Figaro says France has protested to Holland that German merchants are using their flag to carry contraband, and that Holland, after investigation, announced that the complaints were justified. It is believed, says the Figaro, that a state of siege will be proclaimed in Rotterdam to end the trade in contraband.

ENGLISH HELP BELGIAN GUNS TAKE HEAVY TOLL

Fort Waelham Destroys Whole German Regiment in Hard Defense.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 5, 10:10 a. m.—The defending strongholds outside Antwerp, destroyed an entire regiment of the besieging Germans on Saturday afternoon. The Amsterdam correspondent of the Central News has forwarded this statement which he says was received in the dispatch from Antwerp.

An Antwerp dispatch to the Post says that Fort Waelham, in front of Antwerp, met the chief thrust of the German attack. When several of the eupolas were damaged the commandant urged that the men who were most fatigued with the long fight should withdraw from the fort, as only a small garrison was now left. Not a single man would retire voluntarily and it was necessary for the commandant to give direct orders that part of the garrison should leave.

The commandant, though wounded, declared that he himself would not leave so long as it was possible to have another shot at the enemy.

ENGLISH AT FRONT.
The Morning Post's English correspondent in Antwerp makes the following statement:

"The Belgian field artillery is co-operating effectively with our heavy artillery. Our infantry is entrenched on the near bank of the Yvette opposite the main German forces. Two German attempts to cross the river have been smothered by our artillery."

The dispatch is the first intimation that English forces have gone to Antwerp and are co-operating with the Belgians in the defense of that city.

A dispatch to the Exchange Telegraph from the Hague says:

"In the city of Antwerp last night from Antwerp that the position of the Belgian forces is excellent and that the German advance has been steadily checked. The forts are admirably resisting the heavy German artillery fire."

"In the city of Antwerp itself great hopes are entertained of a final victory. There is not the slightest panic. King Albert is continually in the trenches, personally conducting operations. The King stayed in one of the trenches for over twenty-four hours without resting."

Rev. A. A. Williams Is Set Free by Germans
By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5, 4:35 p. m.—Reverend Albert A. Williams of Boston has reached London after arrest and imprisonment in Brussels at the hands of the Germans on the charge of being an English spy and with trying to buy information concerning the movement of German troops. Notes made by Mr. Williams in a French dictionary for a sermon on the horrors of the war into the hands of the Germans, when he was arrested. A German lieutenant thought they constituted code messages because the abbreviated form in which they had been put down.

POSTPONE CONFERENCE.
By Associated Press.
WASHINGTON, Oct. 5.—The fifth Pan-American Conference, scheduled for Santiago, Chile, November 29, probably will be postponed until the close of the European war. The matter will be considered next Wednesday at the meeting here of the governing board of the Pan-American Union and action by that body will be final. In behalf of postponement it was said every American republic was so much occupied with internal problems raised by the European conflict that adequate attention could not be given to the questions affecting the members of the Union generally.

ACCEPT FRENCH CABLEGRAMS.
By Associated Press.
NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—The French authorities have decided again to accept deferred cablegrams to transmission on the French government lines beginning today. The Commercial Cable Company announced here last night. This, it explained, will restore the deferred service to France, Switzerland and Italy.

LONDON, Oct. 5.—A Bordeaux dispatch to the Times says: "The Germans may soon have cause to regret the success of the movement which carried them to St. Mihiel and the banks of the Meuse. While their engineers are making unrelenting efforts to bridge the river again, the French are working step by step toward their rear."

"The balance of days and nights of exhaustion in fighting, the loss of cashing bayonet charges, gallant cavalry actions and obstinate bombardments is about to be struck. The French await the end of the three weeks' struggle with confidence, while casting an eye upon Antwerp."

PENSIONS FOR DISABLED; LABOR LEADER'S PLEA
LONDON, Oct. 5.—Every man permanently disabled in the war is unable to follow his former occupation ought to be paid $5 a week during his life, is the opinion of George Nicol Barnes, the labor leader, and a member of Parliament for the Birmingham Division of Warwickshire.

Mr. Barnes advocated this plan at a mass meeting last night. Heretofore, he said, the disabled had been allowed to beg in the street. Now, however, the government was giving serious consideration to the subject of these unfortunate, and a like situation would not again exist. He estimated that the sum which the government would be called upon to pay the dependents of bread-winners in the field would not reach $25,000,000. Accordingly, he added, the government had not erred on the side of generosity.

GERMAN CONTRABAND TRADE.
By Associated Press.
PARIS, Oct. 5, 7:16 a. m.—The Figaro says France has protested to Holland that German merchants are using their flag to carry contraband, and that Holland, after investigation, announced that the complaints were justified. It is believed, says the Figaro, that a state of siege will be proclaimed in Rotterdam to end the trade in contraband.

German Haste to Capture Antwerp Leads to Severe Losses.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Oct. 5, 10:10 a. m.—The Antwerp correspondent of the Daily Telegraph, telegraphing regarding the fighting around Antwerp, under date of Saturday says:

"The Germans continue their efforts to capture Antwerp. They are in a desperate hurry to do so, pounding away unceasingly with their artillery at Forts Waelhem and Wavre-St. Catherine and flinging their infantry forward in frantic efforts to break through."

"The losses have been enormous and the numbers killed are estimated as high as 8000 during the present movement."

"The Belgians adopted a clever ruse at Waelhem. After the bombardment had lasted several hours the forts ceased to reply, whereupon the German staff, thinking the fort out of action, ordered the infantry to advance in close formation. The Belgian gunners waited until they could see the whites of their eyes and then opened a murderous fire."

"Thus far the forts in the outer ring of the Antwerp defenses have suffered little harm from the German bombardment. The German big guns are not being worked by regular soldiers but by men in citizen's clothing, who wear only an armband to indicate their military occupation. Undoubtedly these men are employees of the Krupp factory, hastily summoned to replace the losses among the regular gun layers. The heaviest German guns are located north of Vilvorde, where foundations of reinforced concrete have been prepared."

"The German shells have practically wiped out most of the little villages and hamlets in the outer circles of Antwerp defenses. The Germans still hold Malines, although at a heavy cost, as the town is subject to a constant bombardment from the Antwerp forts."

DESCRIBES TEUTON 17-INCH HOWITZER
Wounded Officer Tells of Effectiveness and Shortcomings of Big Gun.

By Associated Press.
LONDON, Oct. 5.—A wounded artillery officer who has returned here from the front, says Reuter's Paris correspondent, gives the following interesting details concerning the working and the effects of the fire of the German 17-inch howitzers:

"It was well employed under proper conditions," the officer said, "these guns are very effective, but their handling and transport is difficult. Even forty horses harnessed to the guns are unable to drag these gigantic pieces over the French roads, soaked by the autumn rains, while the mechanism of the guns is so delicate and complicated that it is extremely difficult to replace immediately lost parts."

"Again, while effective at distances, the big howitzers are comparatively harmless at close range and the guns are at the mercy of bayonet charges. Moreover, the shells nearly all burst too soon, too late, or not at all."

"The troops quickly grasped the best method for dealing with these monsters. Once having passed the zone commanded by their fire, the French, being handy with the 75-millimetre guns, sweep away the German artillerymen and then charge. Already a fair number of the guns have been captured in this way."

In conclusion the officer said the big howitzers are only really useful if their position is guaranteed by efficient support from light artillery and infantry.

"If you want to succeed, save. This is the framework of the structure of success."—Marshall Field.

REPUBLICANS SEE VICTORY IN SOUTH

Big Meeting Addressed by Fredericks and Knowland
Point Result.

Following the tremendous meeting addressed Saturday night by Captain John D. Fredericks and Hon. Joseph E. Knowland at Sacramento, political observers predict the Los Angeles will carry the capital city against William Johnson. There has not been a rally like that held in the Clute the past year. More than eight hundred were turned away. Progressive leaders are alarmed at the outpouring and the enthusiasm and are already laying plans to attempt to counteract the effect.

Today Captain Fredericks is speaking in Yolo county and will hold a large meeting this evening in Woodland. Hiram Johnson rested yesterday at the Virginia Hotel in Long Beach, where he met Meyer Lassner and other leaders of the Progressive non-partisan movement. He left there this morning by automobile on his way up the coast, making his first speech today at Northport.

A telegram from San Luis Obispo says John B. Curtin is holding meetings today at Santa Margarita, Tempton and Paso Robles and that tonight a big rally will be held in El Monterey theater in San Luis Obispo. Senator E. A. Campbell, former Democratic state chairman, is accompanying Curtin and his running mate, Snyder. Both are highly pleased with the Santa Barbara meeting.

John M. Eschelman, president of the State Railroad Commission, and John Francis Neylan, head of the board of control, are spending in northern towns this week, having taken vacations for campaign purposes.

Couple United in Death, Not Wedding

WILLOWS, Oct. 5.—United in death instead of the marriage they had planned. Henry Cavier, a clerk, 31 years old, and Miss Blanche Rabbit, 28 years old, were found lifeless today sitting in an automobile, twelve miles west of here.

Still strapped in Cavier's hand was an automatic pistol. It is supposed he shot the girl and then committed suicide. The pair took out a license to wed in San Francisco on September 27, but did not marry.

Instead Cavier returned to WilloWS last Thursday night, and the girl from San Francisco. Sunday night the automobile delivery wagon of the firm for which Cavier worked was missed. It was recovered today with the dead bodies of Cavier and his sweetheart.

There were no signs of a struggle and although nothing is known of the motives of either, it is supposed the pair agreed to die together.

Mrs. Wall Ordered to Answer Questions

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Mrs. Grace Guggenheim Wahl, former wife of William Guggenheim, the New York millionaire, must answer the questions put to her relative to her divorce obtained in Illinois according to a ruling made by the state supreme court. The court held that Mrs. Wahl cannot hide behind the statute of limitation plea which she made, declaring that she might be incriminated if she told the facts of the situation.

Judge Sturtevant decided today that the statute of limitation was already run and that anything Mrs. Wahl may testify regarding the steps taken to procure her divorce from the youngest son of the house of Guggenheim cannot be criminally used against her.

General Kelley in Jail Gets Religion

SACRAMENTO, Oct. 5.—General Charles T. Kelley, who started to lead an army of 1500 unemployed men to Washington last spring and whose followers were dispersed in Sacramento, police officials and a firehouse, was released from the county jail yesterday after completing a six months' sentence for burglary.

Kelley was arrested last June by police. Kelley has not decided what his future actions will be. He says he became a Christian while in jail.

Two Killed and Four Hurt in Explosion

TRUCKEE, Oct. 5.—A fragmentary message from Summit on the Overland line of the Southern Pacific, reported today that in an explosion between tunnels No. 6 and 7, two Western Union linemen had been killed and four wounded. Details were lacking.

TESREAU, ACCUSED OF BROKEN TROTH, GIVES HEAVY BOND

NEW YORK, Oct. 3.—Charles E. Tesreau, known to baseball fans as "Lefty," yesterday filed in the supreme court a bond for $25,000 guaranteeing that he will be present at the trial of the breach of promise action which Miss Clara Young has brought against him.

Miss Young, who lives at Perryville, Mo., alleges that "Lefty" courted her for several months and then asked her to be his wife. She consented, and it was generally known, she says, that she was his fiancée. Many letters passed between the couple, which Miss Young says she will produce at the trial.

About the time that Miss Young expected to become Mrs. Tesreau, she was startled to see an announcement of Tesreau's marriage to Miss Helen E. Blake. This was just prior to the time he started on a baseball trip around the world. Tesreau has filed an answer, denying the allegations.

Ship Takes Fire at Moore & Scott Yards

Fire broke out this afternoon shortly before 3 o'clock at Moore & Scott's iron works, threatening the big shipbuilding plant with a heavy loss and damaging the tug Navigator, which was in drydock. The fire department was called and is fighting the blaze. The shipyard is among the best known on the Pacific coast.

Federation of Labor Begins Convention

STOCKTON, Oct. 5.—The fifteenth annual convention of the Federation of Labor convened this morning in Moose Hall with an attendance estimated at 1000. The convention was opened by Mayor R. R. Reibenstein and at the conclusion of same he was given an ovation. The meeting was called to order by H. F. Foy, of Stockton, a member of the executive committee. His address was greeted with cheers. Rev. J. W. Byrne, with his usual eloquence and prominence in his advocacy of labor affairs, offered the invocation. Following Mayor Reibenstein's speech, Foy gave way to President Haggerty, who presided over the convention. Haggerty covered the history of organized labor in California and said that labor would always be on top. He urged the delegates to conduct themselves with the same dignity as they always have. The convention then adjourned and several reports of the various delegates were read. On motion of a member of the Typographical Union, Mayor Reibenstein and the delegates were taken in automobiles to Lodi.

Fugitive Convict Is in Montana Prison

BERKELEY, Oct. 5.—According to information received here, Frank J. Melville, a fugitive convict, is in the state prison in Butte, Mont. Melville was recently convicted of a crime in Butte county and was sent up for two years.

On the night of December 23 last, Melville and James Hurley escaped from San Quentin, stole a boat at the foot of the city for Berkeley, and fled to the mainland near Richmond. Under the cover of darkness for several nights following they made their way through the mountains and reached Berkeley, where they resided and forced him to change clothes with him. After that all news of Melville's whereabouts were lost until the present time.

Jack Johnson Forfeits $55,000 Bail Money

CHICAGO, Oct. 5.—A $55,000 bond given by Jack Johnson, the negro prizefighter, was forfeited today when Johnson failed to appear in federal court for trial on charges of violation of the Mann White Slave Act in transporting Belle Schreiber from St. Louis to Chicago. Johnson was arrested on the first trial, but was given a new trial because of error. The negro fighter was last heard from in Paris before the outbreak of the war.

ACCUSED SLEUTH SHOWS CACHES OF DYNAMITE

MARTINEZ, Oct. 5.—J. C. Emerson, held in the county jail on charges of burglary and of having high explosives in his possession, and who recently retraced his way to the merchants' association, accused attaches of the Merchants, Manufacturers & Employers' Association of Stockton, of plotting to discredit labor unions by means of dynamite "plants," yesterday accompanied Sheriff R. E. Veale of Contra Costa county to Bay Point, where he pointed out the explosive "caches" he had established there several days ago.

Emerson made the trip to convince Sheriff Veale that he had told the truth in his latest confession, in which he claimed that he had planted dynamite, previously stolen by another man, in the vicinity of Bay Point, to make it appear that the merchants' association was plotting to discredit labor unions.

The authorities here are inclined to disbelieve the story of another man in the case, holding to the theory that Emerson is the main factor in the whole affair.

WOMEN HEAR PEACE TALK.

In observance of Peace Day yesterday afternoon, members of all the prominent women's organizations in town assembled in the flag-decorated hall of the Hotel Oakland to hear an impressive program of peace addresses. Mrs. Edgar Ormish, president of the Woman's Democratic Club of Alameda county, presided.

Prof. J. W. Haverth of the University of California, the speaker particularly from an economic and industrial point of view. Others who addressed the meeting were Rabbi M. Friedlander, Rev. George W. White, Rev. Alexander Allen and Mrs. Arthur W. Fisher. Songs were sung by Miss May Ferrell and Mrs. Karl Nickel.

McCOMBS' REFUSAL APPROVED.

NEW YORK, Oct. 5.—William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, today declared that he had not definitely declined Governor Glynn's request to take the chairmanship of the Democratic State Committee, but had told the governor that he would prefer not to accept the position. McCombs' action was approved today by President Wilson.

OAKLAND BELLE WEDS BERKELEY BUSINESSMAN

At a quiet wedding at the Hotel Oakland today, Miss Hazel Dutton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Dutton of Oakland, became the bride of R. E. Lyons of Berkeley. Only members of the two families were present at the ceremony in the Blue Room at which Rev. F. L. Goodspeed of the First Presbyterian Church was the officiating clergyman.

Following the ceremony at high noon a wedding breakfast in the Blue Room for twenty guests was served. The bride was elaborately decorated with pale pink roses and Ascension lilies.

The bride wore the conventional costume of white satin and lace with a tulle veil, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies of the valley. The bride's family is well known in Oakland, where her parents, who are at present residing in the Muriel Apartments, have resided for many years.

LADIES COMPLETE PLANS FOR CHURCH BENEFIT

Arrangements are now complete for the fund to be given by the ladies of St. Patrick's church in U. P. E. C. hall, corner of Seventh and Henry streets to-day evening. The affair is for the benefit of the Sacred Heart booth of the fair to be opened in the parish hall on October 19 next. Elaborate preparations have been made for the occasion, which promises to be one of the most successful of the season. Excellent music has been secured, and the hall has been very prettily decorated for the occasion.

ELKS REHEARSING COMEDY.

A carload of scenery and costumes which will be used in the production of "The Elk's Tooth," the comedy skit of the Oakland Lodge of Elks, No. 171, on Friday and Saturday evenings, October 16 and 17, at the Macdonough Theater, is now on the way from Chicago. The scenery has been prepared by a firm of leading scenic artists and will compare favorably with that of the larger road companies.

The chorus will change costumes for each appearance and will make nine changes during the evening. A number of the young women who will take part in the play have already been chosen and they and the male performers, all members of Oakland and east bay lodges of Elks, are now being rehearsed by H. L. Brown, author of the play.

COIN-NABBERS BUST.

While Mrs. A. E. Surling, who conducts a candy store at Seminary avenue and the Boulevard, was putting up an order for candy for two couples who came to the store in an automobile, the customers hastily left the store and drove away. Mrs. Surling found that her purse containing $12 had been stolen by her visitors, and notified the Melrose police. The auto patrol was sent out to chase the thieves, but they were not captured. Charles Linath, 1044 Eighty-sixth avenue reported to the police that a burglar used a skeleton key to force an entrance to his home, and stole articles valued at $7.50.

DOCTOR SUES FOR FEE.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Dr. J. H. Walker, house physician at the Palace Hotel, through an assignee, has filed a suit in the superior court against William Child, a man of wealth, who, according to the doctor, was in the habit of spending from $100 to $150 a night in his private pleasure in this city. This morning Judge Crutcher issued a bench warrant for the arrest of Child in order that he might appear and explain why he had not paid the physician's bill for $750 for setting a broken leg.

GRASS FIRE THREATENS.

Residents of the Grand avenue district became alarmed this morning when a large acreage of grass burned and the fire department was summoned to suppress the flames. Though the fire was confined to Haddon Hill, there was danger of the flames spreading to the handsome homes in the Grand avenue tract.

REMARKABLE CURE OF CROUP.

"Last winter when my little boy had croup I got him a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I honestly believe it saved his life," writes Mrs. J. B. Cook, Indiana, Pa. "It cut the phlegm and relieved his coughing spells. I am most grateful for what this remedy has done for him." For sale by Osgood Bros. Drug Stores.

KNOWLEDGE OF "FIRST AID" SAVES LABORER

Nicholas Legas, a Greek laborer, was drowned in Lake Merritt yesterday, and John Angelas, a tailor, narrowly escaped death, when the small boat in which the two men and two companions were out rowing was capsized by the men rowing the boat. According to the police, they were under the influence of liquor. Angelas and Demitrios, Coates and Theo Cripiano were rescued by other pleasure boats, but the body of Legas was not recovered until two hours after the accident.

The accident occurred when the lake was covered with pleasure craft. Patrolman Turcotte, who was directing automobiles at Lakeside park, was notified of the accident, and rowed out in a small boat to assist in the rescue work.

Turcotte undoubtedly saved the life of Angelas by his prompt work in first aid, by inducing artificial respiration. There was no chance of his recovery had first aid not been administered immediately.

Angelas was removed to the Receiving hospital. Angelas and Cripiano lived at 474 Eighth street, while Coates lived at 142 Third street, San Francisco.

Two of the men were rescued by William Henderson, president of the Merritt Boating Club, and Arthur Haggerty, his companion, who risked their lives in a frail lake canoe to go to the rescue of the drowning men.

There were over a dozen boats and canoes within fifty feet of where the two men were struggling around their capsized boat, but none of them went to the rescue, and one man in a boat with a young woman shoved one of the men in the water away with an oar for fear he might capsize the boat.

ELKS REHEARSING COMEDY.

FRENCH SAILOR INJURED.

Joseph Lazzette, a French sailor, was picked up in an unconscious state on the road to the Oakland pier near the Southern Pacific roundhouse with a contusion between the eyes and a lacerated wound on the cheek. He was rushed to the receiving hospital where he was treated by Drs. Irwin, Hamlin, Reine and Dowd.

BRITAIN CONFISCATED FUNDS FOR AMERICANS

In explanation of failure, on the part of those holding return passage tickets on the Hamburg-American line to negotiate these tickets when war broke out, the steamship company has sent out the following:

"We learn that our company has been severely criticized by persons holding return passage tickets who, when our sailings were suspended owing to the war, could not negotiate these tickets nor obtain cash against our travelers' checks when presented in England.

"For your information, and so that you may be able to give the proper information to your friends and clients, should occasion arise, we wish to say that on the day of the outbreak of the war, the Hamburg-American line, our Hamburg office, and the many American agents who held our return tickets and travelers' checks and solicitors for their comfort, immediately sent a large sum of money in gold to our London office to be used exclusively for the convenience of our passengers. The British government, however, seized this money and, as well as all other monies belonging to our company, taking the stand that it was German money and subject to seizure under existing conditions.

"All representations to the British government that this money was practically the property of American tourists who were clamoring for the liquidation of their tickets and travelers' checks, were of no avail, and when our representative's request the American Ambassador presented similar arguments in our behalf to the British government, he was also advised that in their opinion the money had been German property and therefore would be confiscated."

NOTED PRIEST DIES.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Rev. Father Terrence Caraher, pastor of the Church of St. Francis of Assisi, this city, died yesterday at O'Connor's sanatorium, San Jose. His demise was due to a general breaking down in health following from arduous efforts at reconstruction in his parish following the fire.

FIND BODY OF SUSPECTED CHINESE

Murdered to Hide Evidence, is Opinion of Seattle Authorities.

SEATTLE, Oct. 5.—Ching Gow, a Portland Chinese, who, United States officers say, was the gunman who killed Lum Kong, a witness in the big Chinese smuggling case against former Immigration Interpreter Frank Tape, was found dead in a room in a hotel in the Oriental quarter yesterday.

Ching Gow's body was found hanging from the door casing of his room, but the evidence gathered by government officers caused them to declare positively that the Chinese had been murdered.

Ching Gow's death occurred a few hours after it became known that Harry Norman, a former deputy sheriff, had been arrested for attempting to bribe a deputy United States marshal to give Norman a list of the government's witnesses in the Tape case. Government detectives are of the opinion that Norman's arrest and their activity in running down clues concerning Lum Kong's murder frightened the Chinese involved in the case and prompted them to put Ching Gow out of the way, fearing that he would be caught and would implicate them.

The identification of Ching Gow as the man who killed Lum Kong a week ago was made by Immigration Inspector T. M. Fisher. Before Lum Kong died he told Fisher that Ching Gow was his assassin.

BELIEVES MAN DRUGGED.

When Ching Gow's body was found it was still warm. The Chinese apparently had dressed hastily, for his shoes were unfastened. He was bruised in two places but the police have not determined whether this had anything to do with his death. Federal detectives are inclined to the belief that Ching Gow was drugged and then hanged, to give the impression that he committed suicide.

In the dead gunman's hand was a card signed "Ching Gow" and on which was written: "Lat Dan free (China Dan). He is innocent. The man rent the room for me. They don't know I done."

China Dan is said to be a leader of the Hip Sing tong, but this members of the gang deny. What connection China Dan has with the case, if any, has not been disclosed.

Ching Gow has been in Seattle for two months. To all inquiries he said he came from Portland. The Immigration inspectors believe he recently had been smuggled into this country.

Harry Norman, former deputy sheriff, arrested last night in connection with the Tape case, is still in jail in default of $2500 bonds.

THREE FIRES POINT TO WORK OF INCENDIARY

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—Three fires, starting within an hour in the Italian quarters early this morning, have convinced the police that an incendiary is at work, and detectives are searching for him.

One of the fires had plainly been set, and the other two were of mysterious origin. Lino De Martini, of 645 Chestnut street, found a pile of old rags blazing against the side of his home at 5 a. m. and succeeded in extinguishing the flames.

At 4 a. m. fire was discovered in the Genoa macaroni factory, 1714 Stockton street. A still alarm was turned in and the flames extinguished with small damage. The third fire was noticed at 5:05 a. m. in the basement of the three-story house in the Union street house was extinguished after considerable damage had been done.

"HANS" MEETS DEFEAT; BRICK ENDS BATTLE

The European was this morning spread to the Alameda county jail, and as a result "Hans," pet catchword, who for some time past has been the mascot of the jail lawn, is easily in need of repair. It was an English terrier that did the work, too.

The battle took place this morning, half way between the jail gasoline station and the courthouse. Prompt intervention, through the medium of a brick, was furnished by a deputy sheriff, who saw the fight through the window; but large portion of "Hans," elongated beauty is gone, together with a considerable portion of his. He was consoled with mutton chops, and the matter, muzzled in the interests of future neutrality.

SHOOT RABBITS; JAILED.

Rabbit shooting on the Thornhill road in Oakland did not prove a pleasant pastime for 11 young men who were rounded up by Deputy Sheriff Scoville and La Veira, who are employed by the Realty Syndicate. They were released on bail after a large number of rabbits and squirrels were confiscated as evidence. The men were charged with shooting within the city limits. Those arrested were: Joseph Armosino, Hemore Squires, Farrell Brock, Sterling Polles, Adolph Elias, William Drew, Harold Squires, Silvio Campana, Giuseppe Torino, Sterling Fishbeck and Charles Rothweider.

EGGS DISCLOSE BURGLARY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 5.—John Greenan, alias Frank Kelly, was charged with burglary today after the police had trailed him to his room at 23 Prescott court and recovered two cases of eggs and other articles stolen from the grocery of G. Rolandelli & Co., 335 Broadway. Louis Ferraro of 1824 Montgomery street had witnessed the burglary and kept Greenan under surveillance.

JAILED AFTER FIGHT.

Jerry Dunn and Joe Sullivan, following a fight in Emeryville, were this morning lodged in the county jail by Town Marshal Edward Carey. They will come before the Emeryville police court tomorrow.

MOVIE MAGNATE GETS JAIL TERM

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 5.—Henry Lehrman, wealthy motion picture magnate, convicted of having driven his high powered automobile at an excessive rate of speed, was sentenced to serve thirty days in the city jail by Police Judge Chambers today.

INDIANS BREAK UP I. W. W. BANDS

GLASGOW, Mont., Oct. 5.—Temporarily, at least, the bands of I. W. W. travelers whose differences led to the killing of four men on Saturday, appear to have been broken up and largely owing to the efforts of the Indian police and braves from the reservation deputized for the occasion. The Indians were holding a fair at Poplar when the trouble broke out and many of them did not take the time to change their feathers and blankets but began their attack.

Today fuller advices indicate that the trouble Saturday was over an attempt on the part of the leaders of the band to lessen the activities of a few of the marchers who had been plundering their country. The bullet that killed A. J. Glaitvalley, a railway civil engineer, was a stray bullet and the other three men killed were members of the band. Glaitvalley was a resident of St. Paul, and friends say that cards were out announcing his marriage in that city on October 25.

SORRY, BUT WAS TIRED.

"I'm sorry," he said, "but I was tired and I wanted to get home in a hurry." "You mean you are sorry that you were caught," said Judge Chambers. "This is the third time you have appeared in court for a violation of the speed ordinance. You deserve to go to jail."

"I'll sell my car and never drive again if you give me a chance," offered the motion picture king.

"That would not help you any," said the court. "I sentence you to serve thirty days in the city jail."

STES HUSBAND FOR NEGLECT.

Maria Harrington today filed a complaint in the superior court, charging William Harrington with neglect and non-support of his two minor children. The plaintiff claims that her husband is earning the sum of $140 per month, and asks that he pay the sum of $50 each month for the maintenance, and also that she be awarded the custody of the children.

City and County Consolidations.

Initiative amendment to Article XI of the State Constitution, known as "The Oakland Amendment," authorizes cities exceeding 50,000 in population to consolidate and annex only contiguous territory included within the county from which the annexing territory was formed on consolidation, or concurrently or subsequently added to territory excluded from the original consolidated territory, and requires the consent of the annexed territory and that of the county from which it is taken and prescribes the procedure for consolidation and annexation.

This amendment was offered as a substitute for the amendment initiated by the cities of Los Angeles and San Francisco, and by the commercial and political bodies of both was accepted. The Oakland amendment would permit any city of more than 50,000 to form a combined city and county government, the San Francisco amendment fixes the minimum at 175,000. The San Francisco amendment permits the indiscriminate crossing of county lines, the Oakland amendment prohibits it.

The Oakland amendment permits the normal formation and expansion of combined city and county governments and prohibits the disintegration of counties in the course of such formation or expansion, the San Francisco amendment permits of such disintegration.

It is argued in support of the formation of city and county governments under the Oakland plan that such formations do away with unnecessary duplications in the creation and filling of public offices and the transaction of public business. When taxes are levied upon the same piece of property to raise money for paying a city official and a county official for performing the same or a similar service, such taxes are doubled, are unnecessarily burdensome and public funds are wasted. The formation of combined city and county governments eliminates this double taxation without depriving the communities concerned of either city or county government.

A further reason for adopting this proposed amendment is that it puts a stamp of disapproval on the efforts of San Francisco to cross the bay for the purpose of annexing the choicest parts of the counties on the east and north. It permits San Francisco to expand down the peninsula, along logical lines, and where such expansion is apparently desired, but prevents such expansion across the natural barrier of San Francisco bay.

The amendment should be adopted because it permits the normal and beneficial formation and expansion of combined city and county governments, and prevents the abnormal and detrimental.

As related the Chambers of Commerce and public officials of Los Angeles and San Francisco have abandoned their 175,000 population amendment and have declared for the Oakland amendment.

But inasmuch as both are on the ballot, some confusion may result, hence it is the duty of the electors to vote "yes" on proposition 19 and to vote "no" on proposition 21.

With three ceremonies, Indian, Gypsy and American, Miss Ruth Comfort Mitchell, author and playwright of Los Angeles, was married to William S. Young, a Chicago broker, at the Grand Canyon Hotel in Arizona Saturday. Without desire to indulge in slang we venture the expression that these three knots ought to hold Ruth for awhile at least.

Really, this war in Europe is getting serious. The various monarchs engaged are calling each other names.

Although the term "moratorium" has a resemblance to "mort," meaning death, it does not signify that one's debts have really expired, but rather that they are merely sleeping.

When fifty thousand farmers unite to fight the passage of a measure such as the proposed eight hour law, it is time for the rest of the electors to stop and consider.

Preserve Oakland's Port Identity.

Advices from Senator Perkins indicate that Oakland's protest against the abolition of the sub-port office is being heeded by the treasury department and that a decision may be expected shortly, although no intimation is given as to the character of the judgment.

Oakland's standing as a port should not be changed by transferring the office across the bay. The time is not far distant when this city will be a port of entry by itself. Following the increase in trade through the canal and the harbor improvements on this side the shipping business is bound to increase by leaps and bounds. The facilities for loading from car to ship and vice versa, without the expense of lighterage will make this one of the great ports on the coast. To force Oakland shippers to cross the bay to transact business would be not only an aggravation but an injustice.

In view of the shortage of provisions in some of the countries of Europe, why not send condensed milk and infants' food instead of toys for the kiddies?

Although the river and harbor bill was cut to $20,000,000, it is gratifying to note that sufficient work on the Sacramento river improvement, the Oakland estuary, the Humboldt harbor jetties and deepening the channel in San Pablo bay will be done to keep all these projects alive. This action indicates that the money asked for by California's delegation in Congress were legitimate in character and not to be classified as "pork."

William of Weid having disappeared, a son of former Sultan Abdul-Hamid is trying his hand in the king business in Albania. Essad Pasha, however, does not propose to lose opportunity for getting a crown and he is moving on Abdul with some ten thousand retainers. Everyone in Europe seems to be possessed of war mania.

Auto Industry Gets Boost.

Reports from South Bethlehem are to the effect that the English, Russian and French governments have contracted with Chas. M. Schwab for three thousand armored and gun mounted auto trucks for use in the war against Germany and Austria at a cost of $5,000,000. The Bethlehem Steel Works refuses to give out information for the reason that the State Department has issued orders that industrial concerns receiving orders from the warring nations of Europe should avoid publicity as far as possible. It is related that delivery will be at some Canadian port.

Without criticizing the South Bethlehem Steel Works or reflecting in any manner on the action of Schwab, who is evidently furnishing employment for hundreds of workmen hitherto idle, how about this neutrality business? Also why should the State Department urge secrecy? We observe that in the list of articles contraband of war that arms, munitions, vehicles and other mechanical devices by which war may be furthered are barred by England and France. In such an emergency how can we ship to England and France that which we are forbidden by England and France to export to Germany? And why should our own Mr. Bryan, urge secrecy.

Is our diplomacy at last to reach the much criticised dollar standard? While we are praying for peace as a nation are we aiding war by furnishing its machinery?

This is not a political question, as regards party politics; it is moral in character. If we are really in favor of peace we should exhibit a willingness to sell plows but a decided reluctance against supplying cannon.

This from the Concord Transcript, is about the hardest jolt noted in the campaign: "Attorney-General Webb, having given an opinion to Governor Johnson that the proposed Universal Eight Hour bill would be unconstitutional if adopted, the Farmer's Protective League of California announces that its vigorous campaign to defeat the measure will be continued."

SCIENCE NOTES

A basket-shaped criddle has been designed to preserve the shape of the fish while it is being cooked. Lamp standards and telegraph poles are made of woven wire after the plan of the open-work fighting masts of our battleships.

There are three very interesting specimens of old-time house building reposing in the office of the editor of American Carpenter and Builder, which were forwarded to him by George M. Huntress, an old New Hampshire carpenter, who took the most interesting one of the nails from an oak joist in the cellar of the Weeks house at Greenland, N. H., which is one of the oldest structures now standing in this country. The Weeks house was erected in 1633, and is therefore 276 years old, and the nail referred to was evidently driven during the construction of the building, and strange to say, the nail bears none of the appearance of its age. It was, of course, forged by matches in Sweden, as it is easily cut and porous enough to be readily impregnated with sulphur and taraffine.

Twenty Years Ago Today

The smelting car on the rear of the 415 narrow gauge train jumped the track on the south side of the Webster street bridge and plunged into the bay. One young man was killed, and another, who jumped to save his life, is said to have been crushed under the falling train. Several people were badly injured and were taken to their homes immediately after the accident. The cause of the wreck was due to the sudden opening of a derailing switch before the rear wheels of the smelting car had passed over it. The train was going at a fair rate of speed when the rear trucks of the smelting car left the track, and the wheels went bumping along the ties at a great rate. This gave warning to those inside the car that something was wrong. Those nearest the doors were the first to get out and jumped and saved their lives. Some crawled through the windows and escaped in that manner. The derailed car was dragged a distance of 200 feet until the couplings with the forward coach were wrenched off and the smelting car plunged into the water. When the derailed car plunged into the water it is estimated that there were from 10 to 15 people in it who had been unable to make their escape. It is a remarkable thing that more people were not killed. Among the injured were, A. A. Gilbert, Captain J. C. Wilcox, Benjamin Portland, Reuben Beren, J. G. Chestnut, Max Gumpill, W. H. Friend, Colonel W. C. Little, C. B. Houghton, James Hall, J. O. Evans, Itham Chase, George Gilmore, George Homer, E. M. Herrick, J. Oliver Evans and C. A. Evans, brothers of Tallies Evans of THE TRIBUNE staff.

A blockade of the ports of the island of Madagascar has been proclaimed by France. The resident general has been instructed to take measures to protect the English colonists in the event of war. An emergency cabinet council has been convened in London. There is no reasonable doubt that another and very serious hitch has occurred in the diplomatic negotiations with France, relative to Egypt and West and Central Africa. It is most probable that France has suddenly sprung a demand upon the government which has staggered even Kibberly and which may result in war, because Roseberry and his colleagues have almost reached the limit of their complaisance toward France.

CAROLAN'S ROOM LOST

Perhaps Carved Ceiling Is German Prize of War

THE Burlingame set is wondering what will become of the room of the French chateau that the Carolans bought for their California palace.

At last accounts it was still in the chateau. The palace at "Caroland" is not built beyond the foundations, and there was no place to put the room for awhile. It was left in care of Count Boni de Castellane, com-mandeur and dealer in antiques, since his divorce. Later the paneled walls and carved wainscot-ting were to have been taken apart, sent to America and put together again at "Caroland," like a scroll saw puzzle.

But there is the war. Heaven knows when a room may be sent out of France, and whether it may survive the war at all. If the chateau is shelled the Carolans' room may be so thoroughly dissected it can never be put together again.

Meanwhile the Templeton Crookers are having their own troubles with the war. Some of the Italian marble for their place at Uplands has not arrived, and the famous Della Robbia panels may have no proper setting. There are two of them and they are among the famous art treas-ures of America. The dining-room of Italian marble is to be built around them, so the im-portance of the missing material may be understood.

However, there is more as-surance that it will eventually find its way across the Atlantic than that Mrs. Carolan's sixteenth century room will reach California for moons.

FORM DANCING CLUB.

A number of prominent matrons of the Piedmont set have formed a dancing club that will meet every Tuesday morning in the ballroom of the Piedmont residence. The first meeting will be held on October 13. Among the members are Mrs. Havens, Mrs. Oscar Fitzhugh Long, Mrs. Dennis Seale, Mrs. Frank Proctor, Mrs. Paul Dinsmore, Mrs. Charles Barker, Mrs. F. C. Newell, Mrs. Percy Murdock, Mrs. William Williamson, and Mrs. George Wilhelm.

MILLERS TO SAIL.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry East Miller, who are making a tour of the Pacific, will pass on the Olympic, sailing from Southampton on October 9. They will make a brief visit in New York before continuing their tour. They are expected to reach Oakland by November 1. Mr. and Mrs. Miller have been abroad for a number of months and have been with friends in England since the outbreak of the war. They will be given a most cordial welcome after their long absence.

MRS. REID TO ENTERTAIN.

An interesting event of the week will be the tea to be given by Mrs. Walter Reid, Thursday afternoon at her home in Piedmont. About 150 guests will be entertained and the hostess will be assisted by Mrs. D. H. Mazes, Mrs. E. F. Hubbard and Mrs. F. J. Taylor.

GALEITY CLUB MEMBERS.

A number of members of the Galeity Club have received invitations to become members of the exclusive Galeity Club that will give several dances during the season. The club is modeled after the Galeity of San Francisco that includes the prominent younger girls of the smart set, who give some of the most deli-cious dances of the season at the homes of the members.

The club held a meeting last week at the residence of Mrs. Frank Proctor and it was decided to give the first dance early in November. The members (this season) are: Miss Marjorie Page, Miss Elizabeth Page, Miss George Williams, Miss Cora Williams, Miss Ethel Wram-pelmer, Miss Elsie Schilling, Miss Eliza-beth Schilling, Miss Katherine Bousfield, Miss Esther Merrill, Miss Rina Brooks, Miss Dorothy Brooks, Miss May Chase, Miss Lois Crosby, Miss Elizabeth Christy, Miss Julia Dillingham, Miss Elsie Dietrich, Miss Virginia De Fremery, Miss Dorothy Ed-lingers.

Miss Marian Fitzhugh, Miss Orytha Gatch, Miss Theresa Harrison, Miss Helena Howell, Miss Jessie Stewart, Miss Eleanor Moore, Miss Jessie Stewart, Miss Isabel McCracken, Miss Maud Mitchell, Miss Helen Pennell, Miss Mary Rier, Miss Dorothy Rieber, Miss Anne Spring, Miss Mary Shaffer, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss Barbara Sutton, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Cora Smith, Miss Mary Dillman, Miss Margaret Smith, Miss O. G. Miller, Miss Helen Weston, Miss Dorothy Woodward, and Miss Frances Whitely.

Too Much Scowling

(By LILLIAN RUSSELL.)

Copyright, 1914, by LILLIAN RUSSELL.

WHERE there is a scowl on the face it is a reflection of a mental condition, and the mentality may be burdened with a physical weakness due to worry or strain of body. It is to be hoped that people will never permit the scowl to permanently abide upon their features, for it would mean that something is wrong with the habits of life.

High nervous tension, which becomes a habit when the victim of it continues to make no effort at relaxation. The cheeks become drawn, lines form and wrinkles soon groove the forehead.

Worry probably has much to do with the tendency to scowl, which unquestionably is afflicting the people of this nation. It worry all right to worry if worry accomplished anything, but worry can never undo the cause of the worry.

Where the scowl comes from extraordinary demands upon the vitality, the mirror should tell the scowler to "ease up"—to become moderate in all things. It is as easy to dissipate in the dance, the card party, the late dinner, or in work, as it is to dissipate in strong drink.

Study the features carefully, calmly, and with good judgment. Take advice from the mirror and when a scowl is discovered, moodily resting upon features which should be serene and pleasant, seek out the cause. Do not worry. Do not overtax your strength. Be calm—always. Excitement soon places a human upon the home stretch of life.

Remember: A scowl is but a reflection of the inner self, and is a poor recommendation to the world.

OLIVE—I am sorry I cannot give you information in regard to the treatment you ask about. Personally I do not believe in internal remedies for developing the bust. Massage with warm cocoa butter is safe and harmless and is also effective. I shall send you full instructions on developing the bust if you will send me a stamped, addressed envelope.

W. E.—The eyes require the greatest care upon arising in the morning or after any exposure to dust, wind and sun. It is desirable to rub the eyes in tepid water in which a little salt has been sprinkled. The best method of bathing the eyes is with an eye cup. Cold tea leaves is a great help to tender eyelids and are sufficiently astringent to keep the eyelids smooth and firm. Each morning bathe the eyes with the following eye wash: Eight ounces distilled water, one ounce of a 20 per cent solution of boric acid, and ten drops of spirits of cam-

WOMAN TRAILED; THEFT IS CHARGED

Nurse Fled With Treasure, Says Wounded Man

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 3.—De-tectives from the district attorney's office have started a search for Miss Frances Lucius, a hand-some young woman, who is said to be a wealthy mine owner, had made accusations charging her with the theft of a trunk in which was contained gold bullion and mining stocks valued at $316,400.

After trailing the young woman to several addresses, the officers finally located the trunk in a house at 333 South Figueroa street, where all the missing property was recovered, excepting eleven bars of gold bullion, each of which works, who is 34, has lived for several months at 133 South Figueroa street under the care of the young woman whose professional services he said he had en-gaged after he had been brought to Los Angeles suffering from injuries received in a battle with bandits at the Qua-tangmish mine in the Moroles district, 100 miles south of the City of Mexico.

The detectives were unable to find Miss Lucius, but Deputy District At-torney Blair, who issued the complaint, received word over the telephone that she was hiding in the trunk and that she was holding the bullion bars as a lien for personal claims against her aged pa-tient.

Besides the bullion, the trunk con-tained the following property: Four na-tional mining claims, which works is a sworn statement of Prosecutor Blair, declared were worth $100,000; negotiable titles to ten mining claims, valued at $200,000; 8000 shares of stock, valued at $14,500; a promissory note for $800; ar-ticles of jewelry and precious stones, said to be worth $1000.

All the property excepting the eleven bars of bullion, were found intact and restored to works, who was so overcome by his loss that he required medical aid.

"Works has had a remarkable career," said Prosecutor Blair. "For many years he has lived in one of the wealth-iest mining districts in Mexico. From what I learn, Works was, for many years preyed upon by bandits. But he was well armed and seemed to live a charmed life. Two years ago in a desperate fight to save his mine he was injured by being struck across the head with a mus-ket. Since then he has been in feeble health. He came to Los Angeles weak and suffering from his injuries and en-gaged Miss Lucius as a nurse. He rarely left his bed."

"During his convalescence Works told Miss Lucius about the fortune that was contained in his trunk, which he always kept near his bed. He kept personal guard over the trunk and owned a heavy revolver. Under the nursing of the young woman, Works slowly recovered. Several days ago he went to one of the beaches, leaving Miss Lucius to guard his property. When he returned the nurse and the trunk were gone."

"As Miss Lucius and the trunk dis-appeared at the same time, it is believed the eleven bars of gold bullion had not yet been found. I was compelled to issue a complaint charging her with larceny."

PARIS, Oct. 3.—A visitor who went to see Denise Cartier, a 13-year-old girl who was injured by a bomb dropped by a German aeroplane two weeks ago, found her knitting jerseys for the sol-diers. The surgeons had amputated one of her legs, she said with unaf-fected courage. "I have been cour-ageous I am sure my French child would have been the same. I am content to lose my leg for France."

GIRL SCOUTS TO ASSIST IN RED CROSS WORK

WASHINGTON, Oct. 3.—On the in-vitation of Miss Rodmond, chairman of the executive committee of the American Red Cross, the girl scouts of the United States will take a prominent part in Red Cross "flag day" for selling little Amer-ican silk flags to raise funds for war relief in Europe, according to plans out-lined today. This flag day will be on Columbus Day, October 12, in whatever states make this a holiday. Where Co-lumbus Day is not a holiday the flag will be sold on the Saturday following, October 11.

Miss Cora Neal, national secretary of the girl scouts, announced today that her entire organization would devote its efforts to helping to raise Red Cross money on flag day.

EVER-INCREASING CROWD
BOOSTS WORLD'S SERIES

YEAR BY YEAR

Extraordinary Interest in Baseball
Championship Shows
No Slack.

NEW YORK, Oct. 3. — No clearer or more positive illustration of the extraordinary interest taken by the public in the annual world's championship series of baseball games can be desired than that furnished by a glance at the financial results, a statement of which is usually announced at the end of each week's competition for the coveted title and flag. Through the box office its popularity can easily be measured. Compared to the meager returns at the first series in 1890, the enormous crowds registered by the clicking turnstiles show that by leaps and bounds the attendance in recent years has assumed such gigantic proportions that there is no telling what it may amount to in years to come.

The first championship games between the Providence Grays and the Metropolitans may have been only lightly attended and there is nothing on record to show how the receipts amounted to for the three games then played, as Providence was three straight. The following year, however, when seven games were played in four different cities, Chicago, St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Cincinnati, the financial result was about $200,000. That year the fight was a hot one between the Chicago Nationals and the American Association club of St. Louis, and can hardly imagine what would be the yield just now if such a series were possible over a similar circuit.

Of course, these days seats in the bleachers could be had for two bits and the best seats in the grandstand brought the top price of half a dollar. Even at these rates there could not have been much enthusiasm judging from the results. Today, however, prices have soared so that a single admission costs a dollar, or rather that is the face value of the little cardboard and the holder of one of these is considered lucky if it has not cost him more than three times that amount.

In the early days of the world's series tickets were easily obtained at the box office and no one had to worry as to whether he would get to his favorite seat for one of the games. The easy method of obtaining one's baseball appetite disappeared years ago and fabulous prices are offered for ordinary seats in the grandstand. In the vicinity of the grounds the night before each battle and fancy prices are given to the persons who have secured their tickets in the morning. The result of their long vigil. The big prices that are paid for tickets in this way do not increase the receipts so far as the box office returns are not influenced by the exorbitant amounts asked, which are paid by the holder of the choice coupons.

In 1897 when Detroit and St. Louis played 14 games in nearly a dozen cities, the receipts for the series were $1,000,000. A game which was then considered a large amount. The following year St. Louis and Chicago played 15 games, the receipts were $1,200,000. The first year of the Temple cup series, 1894, four games were played and average receipts for each game were $100,000. New York. There was a falling off a year later when the Cleveland-Baltimore series of five games realized only $147,000.

In 1903 when the first series was played between the pennant winners of the National League and the American League, eight games brought a little over $500,000. There was no contest in 1904 but a year later there was an attendance of 1,200,000. The following year, 1906, was taken in for five games at Philadelphia and New York, but the receipts were only $400,000. The attendance dropped to $300,000 in 1907 for the Chicago-Detroit series, but the receipts were $400,000.

A marked increase in attendance and receipts was registered in 1908 when the series was played between the Boston Americans and New York Nationals. Philadelphia and Chicago played five games in 1910, before 124,722 persons. The receipts for the series were $1,000,000. The amount was almost doubled the following year when 179,551 persons contributed $1,454,000 to the Philadelphia and New York series.

This was a mighty jump but it was eclipsed in 1912, the banner year for the series. The receipts for the series were $1,800,000. The attendance for the series was 1,800,000. The receipts for the series were $1,800,000. The attendance for the series was 1,800,000.

Each of the winning players on the winning side in 1913, the first year the series was played under the conditions which now prevail, received $135.25 and each losing player got $112. In 1912 the Boston players received $145 each and the losing players $125. The receipts for the series were $1,800,000. The attendance for the series was 1,800,000.

Here's the Team That They're Calling 'The Halley's Comet of Baseball'

From last place to first in a little over a month is the achievement of the Boston National League team. It is "nip and tuck" between them and the New York Giants. Many of the fans are pulling for the Braves because the Giants already have won three pennants, and it is years since the Boston National League team has had one. Johnny Evers, captain of the Boston team, is shown in the center of the group. Reading from left to right, top row: James G. Thompson, Joe Mauer, and other players. Middle row: Dugger, Tyler, Strand, Dwyer, Gilbert, Smith, Moran. Bottom row: Connolly, Mitchell, Mascot Willie Connors, Rudolph, Mannville, Crutcher, Martin and Evers. ## RUGBY GOSSIP

Joe Billington, a basketball star, is out for one of the side-rank positions on the St. Mary's second varsity team.

Joe is a good boy and he certainly would be a valuable acquisition to the Catholic college.

"Fat" Muldoon, Berkeley High school lock, appears to be the champion heavy seen so far. "Fat" weighs something like 200 pounds. Thompson, in the rear rank, is a good boy and he certainly would be a valuable acquisition to the Catholic college.

The annual Oakland High-Berkeley

football classic is billed for this Friday

at the Berkeley field.

Dave Markovitz, prominent San Jose athlete, is now in this city. Outside of being a rugby player of much ability,

Dave can break a record now and then on any track field.

Frank Book, one of the leading expects athletes in the state, and for many years the physical director of the various Oakland high schools, is now trying to teach the Oakland Poly team the finer points of the rugby game.

The serious injury which pulled Jack

Miller out of the O. P. H. Berkeley game will be regretted by his many friends, and his loss will be felt by the Poly team.

Howard Hogan, first-five on the St.

Mary's second varsity team, is playing like a champion. Another year and this boy will be heard from.

Dutch Gustafson and Frank Andrews are carrying in a Stanford uniform.

Both boys are vets at the game and their presence has strengthened the team.

"Big Game" tickets will be held on

at the Berkeley field.

CONTINUOUS BASEBALL FOR BALANCE OF SEASON

Oakland to Be Experimented With as a
Baseball City During Next Three Weeks

CONTINUOUS baseball is slated for Oakland for the next three weeks, beginning with Tuesday's game between the Oaks and Los Angeles. Oakland fans for some time have been clamoring for more games than have heretofore been played here and they are now to be given the opportunity. The attendance at the games will be watched closely.

Since the transfer of the Sacramento franchise to San Francisco for the balance of the season, and the changing of that team's name to the Missions, their home games have been shifted to San Francisco and all of Oakland's home games will be played here instead of across the bay.

While Oakland is having daily games, San Francisco will also have a series going on during the last three weeks of the season, so on Thursday afternoon and Sunday morning games the teams will chance places, giving a little variety for fans on both sides of the bay.

It now behooves local fans to go out to the home games and find out how the bunch have crawled from fourth to third place, until they now have a good chance to seriously menace Del Howard's aspirations as the best pitcher ever reared in Southern California.

Ray Hagan has all the time contended that his team was the real dark horse in the pennant race, and they have surely jumped up brightly. Like many a dark horse has done before, Venice has been investing in new players and their team of new life seems to have started the team along.

San Francisco has signed a new twirler in W. C. Inman, a Honolulu who has been touted to be a better bowler than Johnny Williams. Inman will appear in a uniform Tuesday, but there is a slight chance of his getting a chance to get in a regular game with the team bunched as they are now.

The baseball season in the north is finished. Portland will have the remaining three weeks of games to play on the road.

In the first inning of the morning game Meneses made a beautiful one-handed throw to Bob Jones' floor, robbing a youngster of a sure hit. Jones later made up for it with a neat sacrifice and good, healthy two-bagger.

Averages for San Francisco and Oakland players and the team in general for the past week are as follows:

Player	Wk.	Se'n.
Ness	421	264
Middleton	421	264
Negantes	421	264
Gustafson	421	264
Gardner	421	264
Powling	421	264
Alexander	421	264

The Santa Clara varsity team swamped the Berkeley club team by the score of 29 to 0 at Santa Clara yesterday. The team's 50 yard kick, Bates' blocking and the all round work of Schultz, Curran, R. Fitzpatrick, Monahan, Davidson and Murrain.

Santa Clara's forwards, Gilman, R. Fitzpatrick, Bates, Noon, Coschino, Packer, Jackson, and others, have been very successful in their play. The team's 50 yard kick, Bates' blocking and the all round work of Schultz, Curran, R. Fitzpatrick, Monahan, Davidson and Murrain.

The coming P. A. A. meet at the Olympic Club on the 12th of October is creating considerable interest. There is no doubt in the minds of the aquatics that there will be many surprises. Among the contestants are: Barrett, Small and Willard Grace, both champions of Duke Kahanamoku, there will be some lively competition in the sprints. The middle distance races will be contested among Jim Resseuer, Larry Lawler and Ernie Smith. Langer will swim in the events. At the present time the University of California and the Olympic Club are favorites for first honors, with St. Mary's strongly in the running.

October 14, in the Columbus day exercises on Lake Merritt, when Coach Stevenson will enter varsity and freshman crews against the best crews of the bay clubs.

U. C. CREW BUSY. Captain Merritt has his men practicing daily in four-man shells on Lake Merritt. Coach Stevenson is on hand again and five of last year's varsity are out for positions. Several "ands" are as usual among the new candidates and a big year is expected. Eight-man shells are used Sunday mornings at the Alameda academy. The first competition will be on

COLORED WHIRLWIND IS FIGURED TO STOP FITZSIMMONS

Yet Henry Hickey Trimmed
Lee and Failed to Trim
Fitzsimmons.

Seems like West Oakland had mortgaged the family home, gave Lee Johnson, the little colored whirlwind, and gone to the bat in behalf of Lee Johnson, the little colored whirlwind, who meets Willie Fitzsimmons Wednesday evening at the West Oakland Club. Johnson is expected to beat Jimmy Evers' great little featherweight and the wagering gentry have backed the little negro from an eleven to one chance to meet a prohibitive favorite.

Fitzsimmons, merely chuckles good naturedly and expresses his intention of waging on his own chance, saying that which he does not often do and which illustrates his confidence in his ability to get by the colored boy who set all Australia by the ears.

Fitzsimmons is used to having the public select someone to beat him. They picked Frankie Malone to do the trick and they picked Henry Hickey to murder him, but in both cases the public discovered that it had been deluded. The little New Yorker, who has made this his home, is a better boxer than the average fan is willing to admit. He is quite likely to show Lee Johnson that the class of fighting in California is quite a different thing.

It is pointed out by a few experienced men that Henry Hickey, who broke into a sound thrashing just before the latter sailed for Australia, while Fitzsimmons certainly showed to advantage over Hickey recently, just after the latter had enjoyed a long rest and looked to be in good condition.

Nevertheless, Johnson has probably provided his striking of success in Australia and is anxious to break in right on his return to his native city. It should be a great scrap. Not the least interested in the scrap will be the referee, Abe Attell, who is married with Johnny Kilbane in an effort to remain the world's champion.

There is every indication of a record house.

Willie Beeches, the New York light-weight, who recently received a draw in a bout with Johnny Dundee, is in San Francisco. Willie says that he hasn't time to accept any matches from the local promoters just now, but will be back from New York in the course of a month or so. Some one should advise him to write before he comes, or he might find that he had spent money for R. R. fares for nothing.

Young Abe Attell, the little feather weight, who made a great hit in the four-round game last winter, is back in town. He claims Oakland as his home town, and is saving hell to his many friends on the coast. He will be remembered as the little fellow who went into the ring as an untrained substitute against Roy Moore and gave the latter the worst thrashing he ever received. Young Abe has been scrapping around Denver, with considerable success, for the past few months, and is anxious to get a chance at the short bout game.

The Berkeley team, highly confident since their win over the Stanford freshman Saturday, are taking things easy, and Coach Mackie has stated that it is all over but the shouting. Mackie will from now on work the boys in light practice. All Berkeley is agog over the Friday game. Next to the U. C.-Stanford game, the Berkeley game is the most important in the season. Mackie has always taken up next place for the biggest attraction, and this year will be no exception. In fact, the teams this year are more closely matched than ever.

Oakland high's superior forwards with their backs to the line, and their promise to be the main features of the play, but funny occurrences happen in rugby, as well as in the majority of the other games, and quite a few people will not be surprised to see the figured strength of each team reversed. The players on both sides are allowed to go full blast in this game, and there will be no backsliding of any of the players in trying to save himself for another game.

The Oakland team will depend more on their aggressiveness to bring home the bacon, while Mackie has not as yet informed any one of how he will direct his team to play.

It looks as though the Berkeley team will have a hard time of it, but a strain of determination if they intend to play up and meet Oakland at their own game.

A more aggressive lot of players have never been seen in a varsity football game. The Berkeley team will have a hard time of it, but a strain of determination if they intend to play up and meet Oakland at their own game.
